Last Rites Held For Doug Feenstra

Services were held on Saturday, October 30, 1993, for Douglas R. Feenstra, 47, of rural Lennox, SD, who died on October 26.

Services were held at Dindot-Klusmann Chapel at Lennox with Gordon Caldwell officiating. Music was provided by Ruth Beck, organist, and Cheryl Hagena, soloist. Honorary pallbearers included all of Doug's friends, with casketbearers including Gordon Caldwell, James Symens, David Newell, Shawn Speck, Gerald Cain, and Shannon Speck. Interment was in the Duncan-St. Placidus Cemetery at Gann Valley, SD, with the Rev. Bernie Ashfield officiating.

Douglas Rudolph Feenstra was born April 7, 1946, in Viborg, SD, the son of Rudolph and Rose (Zellmer) Feenstra. He grew up on the family farm near Davis, graduating from Lennox High School and later attending Nettleton Business College. He worked as a night auditor at the Holiday Inn in Sioux Falls.

He was married to Lucille Margaret Cain of Gann Valley on July 12, 1969, at Brookings. He then took a management position with W.T. Grant Stores in St. Paul, MN, and at Appleton, WI. Later they returned to Sioux Falls, where he worked in sales with Pennsylvania Life Insurance. From 1979 to 1991, he and his wife owned and managed the Junction Store, rural Lennox. Mr. Feenstra also was the Lennox City Magistrate from 1978 until he retired in 1992 due to health reasons.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Rose, in 1972. Survivors include his wife, Lucille; his father, Rudolph, of Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home in Viborg, and his wife, Claribel, of Lennox; his sister, Mrs. James E. (Carol) Nelson of rural Davis; his niece, Deborah Nelson Rose of Sioux Falls; close family friend, Howard Olson; and several uncles, aunts, and cousins.

The family requests that expressions of sympathy take the form of donations to the Children's Inn or the Hospice Unit, McKennan Hospital, both of Sioux Falls.
