Cindy Nogelmeier

Cindy Nogelmeier, 45, died Wednesday, July 20, 2005 at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, MN after a long battle of suffering from migraine headaches.

Cynthia Marie Fickbohm was born on July 21, 1959 in Hollister, CA to Bill and Gene (Combs) Fickbohm. She graduated from Centerville High School in 1977 and was united in marriage to Byron Nogelmeier on August 4, 1984 at Scandia Lutheran Church, Centerville. Cindy went back to school and received her associate degree as a medical assistant from Nettleton Jr. College. She had been employed by University Physicians, Family Practice Physicians Clinic, Sycamore Clinic of Sioux Falls, and the Parker Area Medical Clinic. She was currently employed at the Minnehaha County Sheriff's Office as a corrections officer at the jail. Cindy loved to ride her 883 Harley-Davidson Motorcycle and enjoyed going to Sturgis with her husband Byron and dear friends, Barb and Terry Mark. She touched many people's lives and a lot of people had touched hers.

Grateful for having shared her life are her husband Byron; 2 sons, Nathan and his wife Dawn (Ortman), Kansas City, MO and Lance, Parker; her father and stepmother, Bill and Doris Fickbohm, Centerville; her grandmother, Agnes Fickbohm, Centerville; 3 sisters, Laura (Terry) Jensen, Beresford, Debbie (Terry) Eggleston, Scribner, NE, and Becky (Kevin) Ellis, Centerville; a stepsister, Sherrie Spilde, Lincoln, NE. She was preceded in death by her mother, Gene, and grandparents Alvin Fickbohm and Elvin and Deyliour Combs.

Funeral services were held Monday at Grace Lutheran Church, Parker, with burial in Rosehill Cemetery. Memorials may be directed the breast cancer fund of the American Cancer Society.
