

JORGENSEN, Donald K.

August 10, 1911
Irene
April 18, 1986
Sioux Falls

Viborg Enterprise - May 1, 1986

Services Held For Donald Jorgensen

Funeral services were held on Monday, April 21, 1986 at the Asbury Methodist Church in Sioux Falls for Donald K. Jorgensen, who died April 18, 1986 in Sioux Falls.

Donald K. Jorgensen was born August 10, 1911 at Irene, South Dakota to Chris M. and Christina Jorgensen. He grew up on the farm while receiving his elementary education and high school education in Viborg, South Dakota. He graduated from the University of South Dakota with a Bachelors and Masters Degree in Biology.

He married Mary Horlocker on August 10, 1937 in Viborg. He later did post graduate study in counseling. In 1941, he began his teaching career in the Sioux Falls School System, teaching Biology for many years, later switching to guidance counseling, until his retirement in 1978.

Don and his wife, Mary, did extensive traveling in the United States. He was renowned for his woodworking craftsmanship that he did in his spare time. Don loved listening to easy music on the stereo and was an avid reader.

Donald was a member of the Asbury Methodist Church (Charter Member), Minnetonka Trailer Club, Golden K. Kiwanis, Masons, and Hi 12 Club (Masonic Group).

Grateful for having shared his life are his wife, Mary; a daughter, Patricia "Pat" Palagi and son-in-law, George Palagi, both of Billings, Montana; two grandchildren; Rozalyn Palagi and Donald "Guy" Palagi; three sisters, Crystal Sorensen and Emily Larson, both of Viborg and Amy Hattervig of Sioux Falls; and many nieces and nephews.
