OBITUARY

Hansina Johanna Christianson was born January 30, 1884 at Karteide, Fjelberg, Sonhorland, Norway. She came to America, March 27, 1905, stopping first at Morris, Ill., where she resided until the fall of 1908. From Illinois she moved to Sisseton, S. Dak. At Sisseton she was united in marriage to A. Christopher Osthus February 3, 1910.

In 1918 the family moved to the vicinity of Hooker, and there she resided until her death March 30, at the age of 47 years and two months. Eleven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Osthus, two having passed away in infancy.

Surviving near relatives are her widower and nine children, Jeannette, Harold, Clarence, Alvin, Thorwald, Agnes, Clifford, Dagny and Stanley; two sisters, Mrs. Andrew Osthus of Centerville and Mrs. O. W. Ness of Lake Mills, Iowa. One half sister and six half brothers also survive.

Funeral services were held Wednesday from the Hooker church with Rev. Solem, pastor, offciating.—Centerville Journal.
