ARTHUR JENSEN

Arthur Jensen was born on a farm in Spring Valley, Sept. 24, 1896. After continued Gall trouble attacks of several months duration, he decided to submit to an operation. On Monday last, he was operated, immediately following the the operation his life waned and ebbed away on Wednesday morning at 9:30. Thus at the time of his death he was thirty seven years, seven months and twenty-two days.

On October 14, 1920 he was united in marriage to Carrie Andersen. A home of happiness of fourteen years was enjoyed.

There remain to mourn his loss a loving wife, father, three brothers and four sisters: Mrs. Henry Christensen and Mrs. Nels Petersen of this vicinity, Henry and Peter Hendricksen of Viborg, Mrs. Lewis Nelson of Hurley, Mrs. Carl Johnson of Viborg, Will Hendricksen of California. His mother and two sisters, Mrs. Martin Johnsen and Maggie Jensen preceded him in death.

He was baptized in the Lutheran faith May 9, 1897. In the prime of life the angels called him to reap his reward. In Paul's letter to the Romans are these words: "Let love be without dissimulation. Abbor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

Be kindly affestionated one to another with brothely love; in honour preferring one to another." These were attributes of Arthur.

His cheerful spirit of love always predominated to his wife, father, and to all with whom he came in contact. Thus he seemed to have been the incarnation of the quality which Paul so aptly called the greatest of al things; love objectified in deed and words.

He was carried to his last resting place by his nephews: Wilbert Johnson, Eugene Hendricksen, Marvin Johnson, Burnell Hendricksen, Glenn Johnson and Orville Nelson. A military service was rendered by the American Legion of Hurley and Viborg. Special songs were rendered by the members of the choir of the church. Rev. N. P. Nielsen officating.

Sisters and Brothers.

It is hard to say good bye to our loved ones but we feel consoled in the fact, that to wife, father, relatives, and friends, long will be felt the fragrance of a noble life.

The inspiration of that fine character and the uplift of that loving personlaity can not be buried in thet grave, but will find expression in the life of his associates.

Who drives the horses of the sun
Shall lord but a day;
Better the lowly deed were done,
And kept the humble way.

The happiest heart that ever beat
Was in some quiet breast
That found the common daylight sweet,
And left to Heaven the rest.

On May 20, 1934, Arthur Jensen was laid to rest in the Spring Valley Lutheran cemetery, after a brief services at the home and also at the church which was filled to twice overflowing with friends and neighbors, who had come to pay their last respects.
