VIVIAN CHRISTENSEN PASSED AWAY LAST SATURDAY

Was Oldest Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Christensen

BORN ON JANUARY 16th, 1921

Funeral Services Held at Home and M. E. Church.

Vivian Christensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Christensen, of Viborg, passed away at the home of her parents on Saturday evening, May 14, 1927, after an illness of only two days.

Vivian was born on a farm south east of Viborg on January 16, 1921. She was a bright and lively girl, loved by all who knew her. The large number and the great amount of flowers that was displayed at her funeral is an evidence of the love for the little girl, and the undivided sympathy of the whole community for the bereaved family.

She leaves to mourn her besides her father and mother, one little sister and one brother, grand father and grandmother, uncles and aunts, cousins and a number of relatives and friends. The last thing she said was the repeating her pledge to the flag, and so she sang the song: "Who Will Open Mersies Door and Jesus Will."

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon, May 17, at 2:00 o'clock from the home and the local Methodist church. Mrs. R. H. Allen played the piano and a quartete consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Sorensen and Mrs. H. E. Wumkes and Mr. Chas. Nelson sang. The pall bearers were: Helen Keller, Caroline Christensen, Elaine Nelson and Helen Frickson.

The remains were laid to rest in Rose Hill cemetery, the pastor of the M. E. church officiating at the home, in the church and at the grave. Vivian will be greatly missed in the home, at school and Sunday School.
