OBITUARY

Jens Peter Christensen was born October 7th, 1863 at Risby Mark Herstedvester Sogn Copenhagen Amt Denmark. He left the Old Country and came to America on September 26th, 1888. He first came to Chicago Ill., where he resided with his family until October 4th, 1913 at which time they all moved to Viborg, S. D. Here he has been engaged in the Jeweler business until the time of his death on April 20, 1932. He was 68 years, 6 months and 13 days at the time of his passing.

On June 18th, 1892 he was united in marriage to Anne Pedersen. To this union were born three children, Mrs. Frank Christensen, Viborg, S. D., Charles E. Christensen also of this city and Mrs. Kenneth Hatch of Wakonda, S. D. Aside from these children there remain to mourn their loss the faithful wife, a brother Chris Christensen of Conklin, Mich., four sisters of Copenhagen, Denmark, a nephew Hans Christensen of Chicago, Ill. and ten grandchildren.

J. P. Christensen was known as an honorable, industrious, dependable business man. He was a kind husband and father. He was well and favorably known as a friend. The whole community extends heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

Funeral services took place from the home in Viborg Saturday April 23rd at 1:30 p. m. with the services at the S. Lutheran church and the interment at Rose Hill cemetery with C. E. Peters and Ole Nielsen officiating.
