She married Kenneth Lineback on January 2, 1936 at Sioux Falls. They lived in Vermillion and then Viborg. They next moved to Edgemont where Kenny helped to build the Igloo Munition Storage Depot which was used during WW II. One of Lucille's greatest accomplishments was working and receiving her high school diploma while in her seventies. She had been active in the Viborg Senior Citizens, worked on the VFW scrapbook, and loved to read.
