

MONK, Clayton H.

June 5, 1895

Viborg

October 25, 1953

Squaw Valley, California

Viborg Enterprise - November 19, 1953

Obituaries

CLAYTON H. MONK

Services for Clayton H. Monk, 58, Encinitas carpenter, who passed away October 25th at Squaw Valley, near Lake Tahoe, Calif., where he and Mrs. Monk had worked the past four summers, were conducted on Friday, Oct. 30th, from the Encinitas Mortuary. Interment was at Eternal Hills near Oceanside. A heart attack was the cause of his death.

Born June 5, 1895, at Viborg, S. Dak., Mr. Monk and family moved to California in 1936 and was a resident of Encinitas for 14 years.

Survivors include the widow, Edna, a son, Willard Monk of Phoenix, Ariz., three daughters, Mrs. Ethelyne Peterson of Inglewood, Calif., Mrs. Lafaye Vance of Burbank, Calif., Mrs. Joan Blackburn of Encinitas, eight grandchildren, a brother, Hildon of Chicago, Ill., a sister, Loretta Miller of Viborg, S. Dak., and mother-in-law and father-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Matson of Viborg, S. Dak.