Died,

At his home, 1½ miles west of Viborg, on Tuesday morning, October 24th, 1899, Mr. Carl Nielsen, aged 54 years.

Mr. Nielsen leaves a family of wife and thirteen children, nine boys and four girls, to mourn his loss. He has been ailing for a number of years with stomach trouble, but it was not until recently that it was considered serious.

He was born in Hornsyld, Bjerre Herret, Denmark, and came to America and settled on the same farm that he died more than 20 years ago. He always lived an upright and Christian life and commanded the love and respect from all who knew him, who now extend to the bereaved family their sympathy. He was buried today from the Methodist church Rev. Rosness officiating, assisted by Rev. Anderson of the Lutheran church, and Rev. Seim of Sioux Falls, formerly of this place. The floral decorations were beautiful and the choir sang some very impressive songs. Nearly 70 carriages formed the procession that escorted Carl Nielsen to his last resting place.

Blidt i Dødens Arme
Vor Ven og Broder kjær,
I Stille Fred-nu hviler;
Livs kampen Udstridt er.
I gjenom Livets storme,
Vor Herre styrede alt;
I Himlen har han hjemme
Og livets Krone vant.
