Agnes Jensine Jespersgaard, nee Petersen, was born August 24, 1898 in Brondersleu, Denmark. She made her home there with her parents until in 1920 when she was united in marriage to John Jespersgaard. That same year they came to the United States to make their home, coming to Viborg to settle. They have lived in the Viborg community all of the remaining time.

To this union two children were born, one son, Emil, and one daughter, Alma.

Mrs. Jespersgaard, has been a good woman and has worked hard. She has been a good neighbor and friend, and has always been willing to help in homes where she was needed because of illness. She never complained of her own health, but about two weeks before her passing away, she was taken to Sacred Heart hospital in Yankton, where she passed away the evening of May 12, 1947.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband, John, her son, Emil, of Viborg, S. D., her daughter, Mrs. Storgaard of Sioux Falls, S. D., besides her mother, who is still living in Denmark, and many other relatives and friends.
