Mildred Emmaretta Hill

Mildred Emmaretta Hill was born May 22, 1908 on a farm near Viborg. Her parents were Harry and Anna (Christensen) Nelson.

She graduated from Viborg High School and in 1929 she graduated from McKennan Hospital as a registered nurse. She was employed as a nurse in Sioux Falls, Harrisburg, PA, Los Angeles, CA, and Portland, OR. She married George Hill in Portland on October 16, 1943. She returned to Viborg in 1950 where she worked at the Viborg Medical Clinic for many years. She moved to Bethesda Nursing Home in Beresford in February of 1994. She was a member of First Baptist Church in Viborg and had been active in the Rebekah Lodge of Viborg. She enjoyed crocheting, playing cards, and having coffee with friends and family.

Emmaretta passed way on January 13, 2000 at Bethesda Nursing Home in Beresford. She had attained the age of 91.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two brothers, Hadley and Ertel Nelson.

Emmaretta is survived by one son, Jerry and wife Kathy of Beresford; five grandchildren: Scott Cooper of Sioux Falls, Jill Cravens of Huron, Ross Cooper of Adrian, MI, Elizabeth Hill of Brookings, and Todd Hill of Beresford; two great-grandsons: Chase Cooper and Thomas Cravens; and many other relatives and friends.

The services were performed at the First Baptist Church in Viborg on Monday, January 17, 2000 at 1:30 p.m. Pastor Lawrence Christensen presided over the service. Music was provided by Kathy Olsen, Alan Ward, Gary Ward, and Ethel Ward. The pallbearers were Todd Hill, Ross Cooper, Scott Cooper, Chad Cravens, David Jensen, and Dale Nelson.
