OBITUARY

The late Mrs. Oluf E. Munkvold was born near Trondhjem, Norway June 21st, 1855 and died at her home at Irene, May 22nd, 1922 at 12:30 o'clock p. m. 66 years, 11 months, and 1 day old.

She was married to Oluf Munkvold at Bjerko, Nordland Norway, Dec. 72th, 1877. There they lived for six years and two children, Amalie and Henriette, were born there. The family emigrated to the U. S. A in 1883 and settled on the homestead in Mayfield, Yankton County, S. Dak. There all the rest of the children were born and where they lived until 1907 when they moved to Irene. This has been their home ever since except for two years when they were back on the farm.

The Munkvolds were members of the Meldahls Ev. Luth. Church of near Center Point from its beginning until they moved to Irene and joined the Irene Luth. Church.

Mrs. Marie Munkvold was kind, friendly and hospitable. A most loving and self-sacrificing wife and mother who always had her "dear ones" good at heart. She was the mother of ten children, nine yet living. Henriette has preceded her mother. The bereaved are mourning the loss of the departed are the husband Oluf E.
