

KOHL, Clifford Ernst "Doc"

November 25, 1896
Angola, Indiana
October 29, 1958
Hill City, South Dakota

Viborg Enterprise - November 6, 1958

Funeral Services Held Saturday For C. E. Kohl

Funeral services for C. E. Kohl were held Saturday morning, Nov. 1, at the Hobart Funeral Home at Rapid City, S. Dak., and Sunday afternoon at the Resseguie Funeral Home at Madison, Nebr. Interment was made at Madison. Pallbearers were Messers E. J. Moyer, E. H. Wells, Art Schmidt and Tom Kielty of Madison, and Eddie J. Madsen and Leighton Peterson of Viborg, S. Dak.

Clifford Ernst Kohl was born at Angola, Indiana, Nov. 25, 1896. He came to Nebraska in 1900 and was united in marriage to Edith Resseguie in Madison, Nebraska, in 1917, who preceded him in death in 1927.

He fought in France in World War I with the 354th Infantry Division.

He has made his home since 1930 in South Dakota, where he farmed for a number of years near Viborg, and moved only recently to Hill City.

He was very active in the Boy Scout program at Viborg and Hill City, and an active member of the American Legion.

He is survived by two sons, Jean R. Kohl of Chula Vista, Calif., and Lt. Col. Don R. Kohl of Washington, D. C.

He passed away October 29, 1958, at Hill City, South Dakota.