LAST RITES HELD WEDNESDAY FOR MRS. N. JESPERSEN

This community was saddened by the sudden passing of Mrs. Niels Jespersen, on Saturday, March 31st. Mrs. Jespersen passed away at her home after a brief illness. Funeral services were held Wednesday, April 4th, at 2:00 P.M. from the Our Savior's Lutheran Church and at 1:30 from the home. Rev. Harald Ibsen and Rev. Ronald Jespersen officiated. Music was furnished by Vernon Andersen who sang "Tænk naar engang" at the home, and by Mrs. Jack Rudd who sang "Some Day, I Know" at the church. Lunch was served in the parish hall by the Danish Ladies Aid. Pallbearers were: Kermit Holm, Ellsworth Danielsen, Arnold Andersen, Vernon Andersen, Magnus Miller and Shomer Jensen. Interment was at Rosehill cemetery.

Ludevikke F. Buck was born on a farm at Center Point, near Viborg, South Dakota, on August 5, 1889, to Peder and Magdalene Buck. She attended elementary school near her home, and in her youth attended the folk schools "Danebod" and "Atterdag", located at Tyler, Minn., and Solvang, Calif.

She was baptised and confirmed in the Lutheran faith and was a member of Our Savior's Lutheran Church of Viborg, South Dakota.

On March 24, 1915, she was married to Niels C. Jespersen, also of Viborg. To them were born six children: Ronald of Danevang, Texas; Neelna of Oakland, Calif.; Harold of Detroit, Mich.; Dagmar of Sioux Falls, S. Dak.; and Raymond and Edith, both of Viborg, S. Dak. She is survived by all of these, as well as by six sons-and-daughters-in-law and twelve grandchildren. She is also survived by two brothers, John Buck of Viborg and Lars Beck of Tyler, Minn., and by a sister, Mrs. Fred Miller of Tyler, Minn.

Mrs. Jespersen slept away, quietly and rather unexpectantly, on Saturday afternoon, March 31, 1956, the afternoon before Easter. Blessed be her life among us.
