FRIMAN, Gary

April 21, 1940
Hurley
June 3, 2000
Pierre, South Dakota

Viborg Enterprise
June 22, 2000

Gary Friman

Gary was born April 21, 1940, to Roy and Anne (Nelsen) Friman in Hurley, SD. He grew up in the Hurley area and attended school, until he moved to Pierre. He attended high school and worked at Friman Oil and Gas Company. Gary was united in marriage to Kaye Anglin in Yankton, SD. They lived in Hurley and Gary commuted between Hurley and Pierre while working at Friman Oil and Gas Co. They moved to Pierre in 1968. In 1993 they became owners of Friman Oil and Gas. Gary was a member of the South Dakota Petroleum Marketers and South Dakota Propane Association.

Gary, 60, of Pierre, died Saturday, June 3, 2000 at his home in Pierre.

Gary is survived by his wife of 41 years Kaye of Pierre; one son, Jeff of Pierre; three daughters, Wendy Payne and husband Shawn of Aztec, NM, Peggie Larsen and husband John of Fort Pierre, Sherry Hausner and husband Miles of Athena, OR; eight grandchildren, Garrett, Dustin, Dusty, Cole, Corie, Spencer, Thomas, Tayler; one sister and two brothers.

Gary was preceded in death by one son, his parents, one sister and two brothers.

Funeral Services were held Thursday, June 8, 2000 at First United Methodist Church, Pierre, SD with Pastor Charlie Wharton officiating. Bev Mickelson was the organist and soloist was Sue Mellegard.

Casket bearers were Ray Blumer, Gail Lange, Doug Mellegard, Mike Lemieux, Mike Bucholz and Les Donner.