GLENN EMMETT HOLM

Glenn Emmett Holm was born Sept. 15, 1914. He died at the age of 22 years and 6 months on April 19th, 1937. He attended the local country school until 1922 when he was stricken by a strange malady which baffled science for years. Doctors all over knew of nothing to help him. A partial paralysis afflicted him, but until 1928, when he contracted measles it was not particularly noticeable. Since that time he has been an invalid. Always cheerful, well posted he kept up his spirit and courage until the last.

He leaves to mourn his death, his father, Viggo Holm, his mother Mrs. Eleanor Holm, three brothers, Ralph, Leonard and Gordon and two sisters, Nina and Lois, aunts, uncles, cousins and a host of friends.

Leaf after leaf drops off,
Flower after flower,
Some in the chill, some in the warmer hour;
Alive they flourish, and alive
they fall,
And Earth who nourished them
receives them all,
Should we, her wiser sons, be less content,
To sink into her lap when life is spent?

The funeral was held from the home on Wednesday, at 2:00 P. M. with services in the Baptist church. The interment was in Rose Hill cemetery; C. E. Peters officiating, with the Hansen Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The sympathy of a host of friends goes to the bereaved family.
