Charles A. Christopherson

Charles A. Christopherson was born February 10, 1951 at Viborg to parents Earl and Anna Christopherson. He grew up in the Irene and Viborg area, graduating from High School in 1970.

Charles moved to Galway, New York where he met Gloria Hill. They were married on February 12, 1972. Charles and Gloria moved back to Colton where he worked as a truck driver for Bill and Jean's in Madison, then for American Freight of Sioux Falls. Charles then attended Southeast Votech School studying HVAC and graduated in 1992. He then started working for Weber Heating. Charles and Gloria also had a business called Dynamite Entertainment for the last four years.

Charles was a member of West Nidaros Lutheran Church near Crooks. He enjoyed playing pool and the karaoke business.

Charles died Thursday, December 12, 2002 in the Sioux Valley Hospital following a long battle with cancer.

Grateful for having shared his life are his wife Gloria, Colton; two daughters, Tina and Melissa, both of Sioux Falls; two sons, Charles, Jr. and Kevin, both of Colton; two sisters, Eileen Olsen, Georgia and Arlyce Buckman, Lennox; one brother, James, Viborg; his mother Anna, Viborg; and many cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his father Earl and sister Jean Marie.
