SCOTT, Marcene Minnie (Lehmann)

August 25, 1932
Freeman SD
May 12, 1996
Sioux Falls

Viborg Enterprise
May 16, 1996

Marcene Scott

Marcene Minnie Scott, 63, daughter of Albert and Edna (Smidt) Lehmann, was born August 25, 1932 at Freeman, SD. She died Sunday, May 12, 1996 at McKennan Hospital, Sioux Falls, SD.

She attended school in Hurley and graduated from high school in 1950.

Marcene received her nurses training from Sacred Heart Hospital in Yankton, SD and worked their for one year.

On June 28, 1955, she was united in marriage to Willis Scott at the Salem Mennonite South Church, rural Freeman, SD. They lived in Seattle, WA four months before returning to SD and began farming southeast of Parker and later east of Parker. They retired in 1994 then Marcene went to work at the Parker Filter Plant two and a half years, retiring in March 1996.

Mrs. Scott was a faithful member of the First Baptist Church, American Baptist Women and other church organizations. She also served as secretary for the Parker Medical Board.

She is survived by her husband Willis; one son, David and wife, Nancy of Lennox; two daughters: Pamela and husband, Brian Sandro of Harrisburg, and Debra and husband, Richard Thalhuber of Sioux Falls; seven granddaughters: Hillary, Emily and Lindsay Scott; Taya and Molly Sandro; Kasey and Megen Thalhuber; three brothers: Lester of Hurley, Eugene of Kent, WA and Dale of Freeman, and one sister, Vernelle and husband Vernon Larsen of Viborg.

Preceding her in death were her parents; two brothers, Ken and LaVerne, and two granddaughters: Jennifer Lea and Melisa Kay.

Funeral Services were held Wednesday, May 15, 1996 at First Baptist Church, Parker, SD with Pastor David Ernst officiating.

Pallbearers were Dick Almond, Rudy Sturzenbecher, Bob Koller, Peter Andersen, Bill Eichel, Sr., and Virgil Bosch. She was laid to rest at Rosehill Cemetery, Parker, SD.