Angela Adel Alton was born January 7, 1960, to Ernest and Thelma (Brown) Alton in Wagner, SD. She was raised in Viborg, SD, and graduated from Viborg High School in 1978. Angie married Patrick Farley that same year, and from this marriage was blessed with a son, Derek, and a daughter, Melissa. Angie moved between Beresford and Alcester before making her home in Sioux Falls in 1994. It was around this time she met Marc Edward Schumacher, and the pair were married on April 22, 1995, on a cruise ship in Miami, FL. Angie loved fishing with Marc, and the pair spent many days together on the water. From her marriage to Marc, Angie was blessed with a son, Blake. Angie worked for many years at Lewis Drug before finding her passion serving residents at Good Samaritan Society Prairie Creek. She loved, cared for, and talked fondly about her residents, even inviting them over for home-cooked meals. Angie was exceptionally generous and wouldn't hesitate to give what she had to help others. She enjoyed living simply—fishing, bowling, tanning on her porch, watching Hallmark movies and The Price Is Right, caring for her animals, and tending to her ever-growing plant collection. She also loved socializing, talking for hours to friends on the phone or taking them out to her few favorite restaurants. Above all else, Angie cared deeply for her kids and grandkids and always made sure they knew how much she loved them.

Angie was a devoted mother, grandmother, aunt, daughter, sister, and friend, and she will be so deeply missed. Grateful for having shared her life are her three children, Derek Farley, Sturgis, SD; Melissa Whitacre and her husband, Wade, Estherville, IA; and Blake Schumacher and his wife, Ashtyn, Sioux Falls, SD; four grandchildren, Landon Voegeli, Beresford, SD; Kyson and Kaysha Whitacre, Estherville, IA; and Julian Schumacher, Sioux Falls, SD; her mother, Thelma Alton, Viborg, SD; one brother, Aaron Alton and his wife, Jan, Fargo, ND; two sisters, Lori Huber and her husband, Kevin, Irene, SD, and Brenda Huber and her husband, Jon, Summerset, SD; and many nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends. She was preceded in death by her father, Ernest Alton, and her two husbands, Marc Schumacher and Patrick Farley.
