

ANDERSON, Oliver O.

October 27, 1904
rural Alcester, South Dakota
July 4, 1983
Yankton

Viborg Enterprise - July 14, 1983

Oliver Anderson

The funeral service for Oliver O. Anderson was held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 6, at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, Hurley with Rev. Loren Seibold officiating.

Organist was Mrs. Gladys Kler. Alan Ward and Gary Ward sang "Surely, Goodness and Mercy" and "How Great Thou Art." Accompanist was Mrs. Robert Ward.

Pallbearers were Merle Flyger, Marlow Christensen, Ray F. Anderson, Don Freese, Ronnie Oswald and Rod Strayer.

Ushers were Henry Richards and Lester Olesen.

Burial was made at Evergreen Cemetery, Viborg.

OBITUARY

Oliver O. Anderson, 78, son of David and Tena Anderson, was born October 27, 1904, south of Alcester, S.D., and died Monday, July 4, 1983 at the Sacred Heart Hospital, Yankton, S.D.

He moved to the present home place at the age of 14, where he farmed all his life. He was baptized as a young man in the Swan Lake Adventist Church.

He married Helen Garver, June 19, 1935 at Sioux Falls, S.D.

His survivors include his wife; two sons, Curtis and Roger, Hurley; and four grandchildren.

Preceding him in death were his parents; three brothers, Linden, Grover and Roslyn, and a son, Kieth.
