IN MEMORIAM

With a heavy heart we would drop a tear to the memory of Hans N. Nelson.

His death has brought the bitter cup of sorrow to the lips of friends and relatives. He was one of nature's noblemen in its truest sense—brave, generous and manly. Hans N. Nelson was born in Schleiswick-Holstein, Germany and, at the time of his death was in his twenty-eighth year. He died at his home east of town on Thanksgiving night at 11:30 o'clock of the dreaded disease, influenza. He was only sick a week.

He leaves to mourn him, his young wife and little son, his father and mother and three brothers.

Hans was laid to rest in the west Lutheran cemetery on Nov. 30th. Rev. Christensen spoke words of comfort to the sorrowing family.

To the wife, son, father mother and brothers, who sit in sorrow where his footsteps shall never again find echo, we extend sympathy.
