OBITUARY

MRS. GOULD MARK

Hannah Larsen was born in the Center Point community, May 20, 1902. She was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith.

In 1904 she was united in holy matrimony to Gould Mark. To this union was blessed six children, of whom one infant son passed on.

Those who are left to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother are Mr. Gould Mark, husband, Donald, Robert and Charles, sons, and Geraldine (Mrs. Albert Dangel) all of Viborg and Marilyn (Mrs. Donald Schenkel) of Castlewood, South Dakota. There are 13 grandchildren, a sep-mother, Mrs. Jenny Larsen of Carthage, S. D., five half-brothers, Paul Larsen and Emil Larsen of Viborg, Harry Larsen and Magnar Larsen of Carthage, S. Dak., Lars Larsen of Madison, one half-sister, Elsie (Mrs. Paul Durrant) of Carthage, S. Dak., and a host of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Mark had been failing in health the last 18 months. She suddenly passed away at the Viborg Hospital on Tuesday morning, June 11th, 1957, at the age of 55 years and 23 days.

Preceding her in death were one infant, parents, one half-sister, and two half-brothers.

Services were held at the Methodist Church on June 14th, where Rev. Wayne Rager and Rev. Robert Vessey spoke the comforting words. She was buried in the Rose Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers were Walter Knudsen, Jr., Curtis Mark, Elrud Larsen, Louis Larsen, Earl Larsen and Richard Durrant.

May her soul rest in heavenly peace.
