FUNERAL FOR VIBORG GIRL ON THURSDAY

End Comes To Clarabelle Glood Monday after Lingering Illness

Funeral services for Clarabelle Glood, who passed on Monday shortly after noon will be held at the Danish Lutheran church Thursday afternoon, following the services at 2 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Glood.

Services will be in charge of Dr. C. E. Peters and Rev. C. C. Rasmussen. Classmates of Clarabelle will furnish the musical numbers at the services at the church and interment will follow at Rose Hill cemetery.

The end came after a lingering illness, during which her parents and medical skill did everything in their power to help. Clarabelle graduated from Viborg high school last spring, an honor student and one of the most popular members of her class, taking an active part in many activities despite the handicap of failing health in the last year of her school days.

Her passing is mourned by her family and relatives and a host of friends and the Enterprise joins in the condolences.
