NELSON, Emma S.

July 29, 1886
southern Turner County
May 21, 1961
Port Angeles, Washington

Viborg Enterprise - June 8, 1961

Last Rites Are Held For Former Viborg Resident

Funeral services for Emma S. Nelson, 74, of 211 E. 7th St., Port Angeles, Washington, who passed away Sunday, May 21, following an extended illness, were held on May 25 at the First Baptist Church in Port Angeles with the Rev. James McDowell officiating. Organist was Betty Northup and the soloist was Sarah Colbern. Pallbearers were Einer Thomsen, Aage Thomsen, Vialas Aggergaard, Roy Skonhovd, Orville Brandland and Edward Brandland. Burial was in Mt. Angeles Cemetery under the direction of the Harper Funeral Home.

Mrs. Nelson was born in Viborg, S. Dak., July 29, 1886, and married Peter Nelson in Viborg, June 4, 1907. They moved to Port Angeles to make their home in 1937. Mr. Nelson passed away there on Sept. 4, 1959.

She was a member of the Rebekah Lodge of Viborg and Port Angeles, and of the First Baptist Church of Port Angeles.

She leaves to mourn her passing, two daughters, Mrs. Enoch Hansen of Port Angeles, and Mrs. V. E. Okerstrom of Los Angeles; three sons, Gilbert of Viborg, S. Dak., Morris of Port Angeles, and Gerald of Salem, Oregon; one sister, Mrs. J. F. Willis of Haquiam, Wash., 11 grandchildren, and 7 great-grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends.