Mrs. Andreas Henriksen, whose maiden name was Maren Nielsen, was born May 2nd 1871 in Roarup parish, near Horsens, Denmark. When about fifteen years of age she came with her parents to this country. In 1891 she became the wife of Mr. Andreas Henriksen who then lived on the old blacksmith Jorgensen's farm. In the spring of the year 1900 Mr. Henriksen bought a farm about 3 miles east of Yankton and since then that has been their home.

Mrs. Henriksen has not been well for several years. Last spring, in the month of March, she suffered a stroke of paralysis and never fully recovered from the effects of that. Her strength was gradually broken down and on the 6th day of November she died at the home of James Ibsen's, near Viborg. Mrs. Henriksen was a sister to Mrs. James Ibsen, and at the Ibsen's home Mrs. Henriksen was given all the care a loving sister could possibly provide.

Funeral Services were held Sunday afternoon from the South Lutheran Church and interment was made at the Danish cemetery, 3 miles west of Viborg.
