

PEDERSON, Oliver

September 8, 1917
rural Wing, North Dakota
August 27, 1984
Omaha, Nebraska

Viborg Enterprise - September 6, 1984

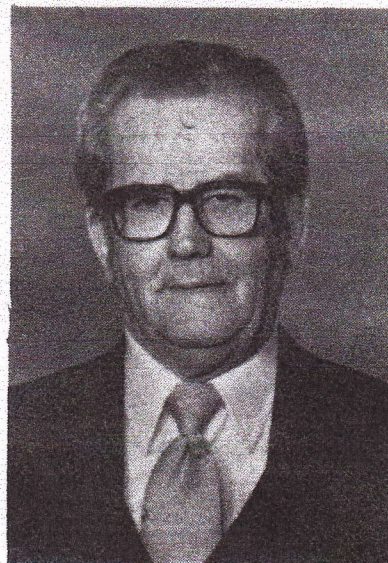

Oliver Pederson, 66

Funeral Held

Oliver Pederson, 66, rural Freeman, died Monday, August 27, 1984, at the University Hospital, Omaha, Nebraska, where he had been a patient since February.

Funeral services were held Thursday, August 30 in Our Redeemer Lutheran Church, rural Midway, with the Rev. Robert Quaintance officiating. Burial was in Bang Cemetery at Turkey Ridge.

Mr. Pederson was born September 8, 1917, near Wing, North Dakota, to John and Anna (Jorstad) Pederson. He married Dorothy Irene Gustafson on March 12, 1943 at Beresford. The couple farmed at rural Freeman for many years, and he was also employed 18 years at the state Human Services Center, Yankton.

OLIVER PEDERSON

He was an active member of Our Redeemer Lutheran Church.

Survivors include his wife; five children: Wayne, Meckling, John, Viborg, David, Yankton, Mrs. Larry (Anna) Larsen, Viborg, and Steven, Sioux Falls; 13 grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Helen Holm, Irene; and a brother, Peder Pederson, Irene.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother, Selmar Pederson, and a sister, Olga Gran.