FUNERAL SERVICES HELD TUESDAY FOR ORVAL BERTHELSEN

Funeral services for Orval Berthelsen 46, were held at the Viborg Fraternal Home at 1:30 P. M., and at Our Savior's Lutheran Church at 2:00 P. M. on Tuesday afternoon, September 28. Pastor G. E. Undem officiated. Mrs. Kermit Holm sang two solos, "Rock of Ages" and "Beyond the Sunset". Mrs. L. J. Rasmussen presided at the organ. Pallbearers were James Luke, Dennis Bovee, Dennis Jensen, David Sorenson, Duane Luke and Robert Nelson. Interment was at Rosehill Cemetery.

Orval Julius Berthelsen was born in Salem Township May 20, 1919. He was the second child born to George and Alice Berthelsen. He was baptized into the Lutheran faith at Spring Valley and confirmed at Our Savior's Lutheran Church.

He was united in marriage to Irene Bovee of Parker on June 30, 1939. Three children blessed this union, a son Robert, and two daughters, Shirley and Karen.

He was employed at Manchesters as a maintenance operator for ten years previous to moving to Viborg in which he owned and operated the Country Style Cafe.

He leaves to mourn, his wife, Irene; his children, Robert, Shirley (Mrs. Wesley Plucker) and Karen at home; a son-in-law Wesley; daughter-in-law Mary; and a grandson Robert; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Berthelsen, his brother, Emmett of Sioux Falls; and his sisters, Laura (Mrs. Ervin Jensen) of Freeman; Lillie (Mrs. Willard Sorenson) of Viborg; Ver-na (Mrs. Jack Sherard) of Salinas, California, and Elna (Mrs. Wilfred Snoozy) of San Jose, California.

Death came unexpectedly early Saturday morning, September 25.

Blessed be the memory of a good husband, father, son, brother and friend.
