Foreword

A little world of our own-- Set apart from the outside
Where we live four years,
Four short, exciting years
That never quite leave us.
There's joy and happiness here,
And there's pain and sadness,
Anticipation and disappointment
It's all a part of Our World.

To you it may look like any other world,
But to us it is unique;
It's something very special,
And we value it above all else.
To this World we've been given everything;
There's been sacrifice and tears.
We've worked long and hard to meet our goals
And we're proud of our achievements.

In the course of time,
Friendships have found beginnings;
Old ones have been broken.
We've come to know ourselves;
We've developed an identity.
At times we've been lost, confused,
But we've somehow found our way.
Experiences have strengthened us;
They've shown us reality.
And all through life we'll remember
And wish it were ours to do again.

There's been so much said about Our World.
Some things we want to say
To convey to you this warm feeling
That's in our hearts today,
But it's hard to make you understand.
We can't express it all,
Yet it's our aim that from these pages
At least a glimpse will catch your eye.

And this to you outside,
We present.

Class of '72

"Climb 'Til Your Dream Comes True"

Often your tasks will be many,
And more than you think you can do.
Often the road will be rugged
And the hills insurmountable, too.
But always remember,
the hills ahead
Are never as steep as they seem,
And with faith in your heart start upward
And climb 'til you reach your dream,
For nothing in life that is worthy
Is ever too hard to achieve
If you have the courage to try it
And you have the faith to believe. . .
For faith is a force that is greater Than knowledge or power or skill
And many defeats turn to triumph
If you trust in God's wisdom and will. . .
For faith is a mover of mountains,
There's nothing that God cannot do,
So start out today
with faith in your heart
And "Climb 'Til Your Dream comes True"!

Class Officers

We came to this place alone but together. . . .

We have shared so much our laughter, our frustrations, our music, our words, . . .
and a love that has grown between us. . . .

We have found this challenge still waiting for us to reach out and touch.
We knew we had to make the most of this exciting year—
a year of so much,

Twenty-Seven Friends

Twenty-seven friends,
close companions,
playing "Duck, Duck Goose"
on a Wednesday afternoon
pause to say good-by.

We remember the funny things,
those embarrassing times when we imagined we were little kids again
acting kinda crazy.

Funny, how the days have flown, funny, how the years went by.
There was a time,
not so long ago,
when we thought it would always be the same.

You know, it's sad
to leave this World behind.
We don't want to give it up.
It means creating something new when we like the old life just as well.

And what do you say to someone who's been with you every day?
He's shared each joy and disappointment, always understood.
And suddenly now you realize;
he'll be gone
and you're alone.

Yet somehow, very slowly,
smiles come through the tears.
We remember something called tomorrow
And the memories yet to come.

We are anxious to get going for there are new Worlds, new dreams, new challenges
And the future holds so much for us who are only just beginning.

To you in this World
we want to say thank you.
You've been our friends and helped us to meet the challenges of living.
Your friendship means so much 'cause you've shown a faith in us that goes beyond any classroom lesson.

Thus, twenty-seven friends,
close companions,
playing "Duck, Duck Goose"
on a Wednesday afternoon
pause to say. good-by.

We make ourselves a place apart
Behind light worlds that tease and flout,
But oh, the agitated heart
Till someone finds us really out.

'Tis pity if the case require
Or so we say that in the end
We speak the literal to inspire
The understanding of a friend.

But so with all, from babes that play
At hide-and-seek to God afar,
So all who hide too well away
Must speak and tell us where they are.

Sophomores entered their float in the homecoming parade and won second place with "Sinking of the Trojans."

Class Officers

We came along quietly entering a world of confusion

What was this all about?

Suddenly our minds expanded to new and different realms of life.

Each day was a new adventure,
each day we discovered, each day we learned a little bit more about us, about you, about life.

Our lives were broadened by new courses, more activities, and the making of new friends.

We reached out and found a challenge.

Julie Schriever, vice president; Marilyn Elcock, secretary; Mark Schempp, president; and Peggy Collins, treasurer. The Schriever family moved to a farm near Parker in January, and Julie transferred to Parker at that time.

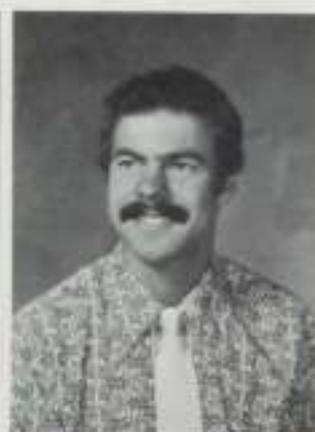

Students in this class kept busy during the year studying English, general science, and either algebra or general math. Some of the class took Spanish. While the boys were working in shop, the girls were cooking and sewing in home economics.

Contest

Soloists

Donna Sampson, Cindy Johnson, Marilyn Elcock, Clayton Lehmann, Don Nelson, and Doug Spomer entered the regional contest for soloists at Vermillion in February. Each of these contestants received a second or excellent rating.

Donna entered the contest as a mezzo-soprano. Cindy sang an alto solo. Marilyn had a soprano solo and also played a piano solo.

Clayton entered the contest with a bass solo. Don sang a tenor solo, and Doug was in the baritone division.

The junior class presented the play, "Finders Creepers", to the public in November. It was a big hit with everyone who saw it. Randy Sorensen and Lon Andersen did a great job as teenage detectives. Wes Erdem surprised everyone with his presentation as an elderly man. The play was well cast with Mr. Jorgensen as director, and Sandy Petersen as assistant director. Below are some of the scenes from the play.

TO THE SENIORS

Another year goes passing by Another Prom is here
 To some this brings a joyous smile
 To others, brings a tear
 For four years you have tread a path
 From dawn to setting sun
 But now the path gets steeper
 And the climb is just begun
 We're very glad to know you
 We'll miss you when you've gone
 And to the Class of '72
 We dedicate our Prom.

THANK YOU

To everyone who ordered a copy of the Hurkota.

To all the advertisers for their continued support.

To Al Nickel of Al's Studio for his fine photography.

To John Rasmussen, Cindy Johnson, and others who took pictures.

To all staff members for their fine work.

Closing Thoughts

As we close the cover on "Our World in '72", may the pages of this HURKOTA serve as a reminder of the important events of 1971-72.

As we venture forth to turn our dreams into realities we will always have the fond memories of HHS.

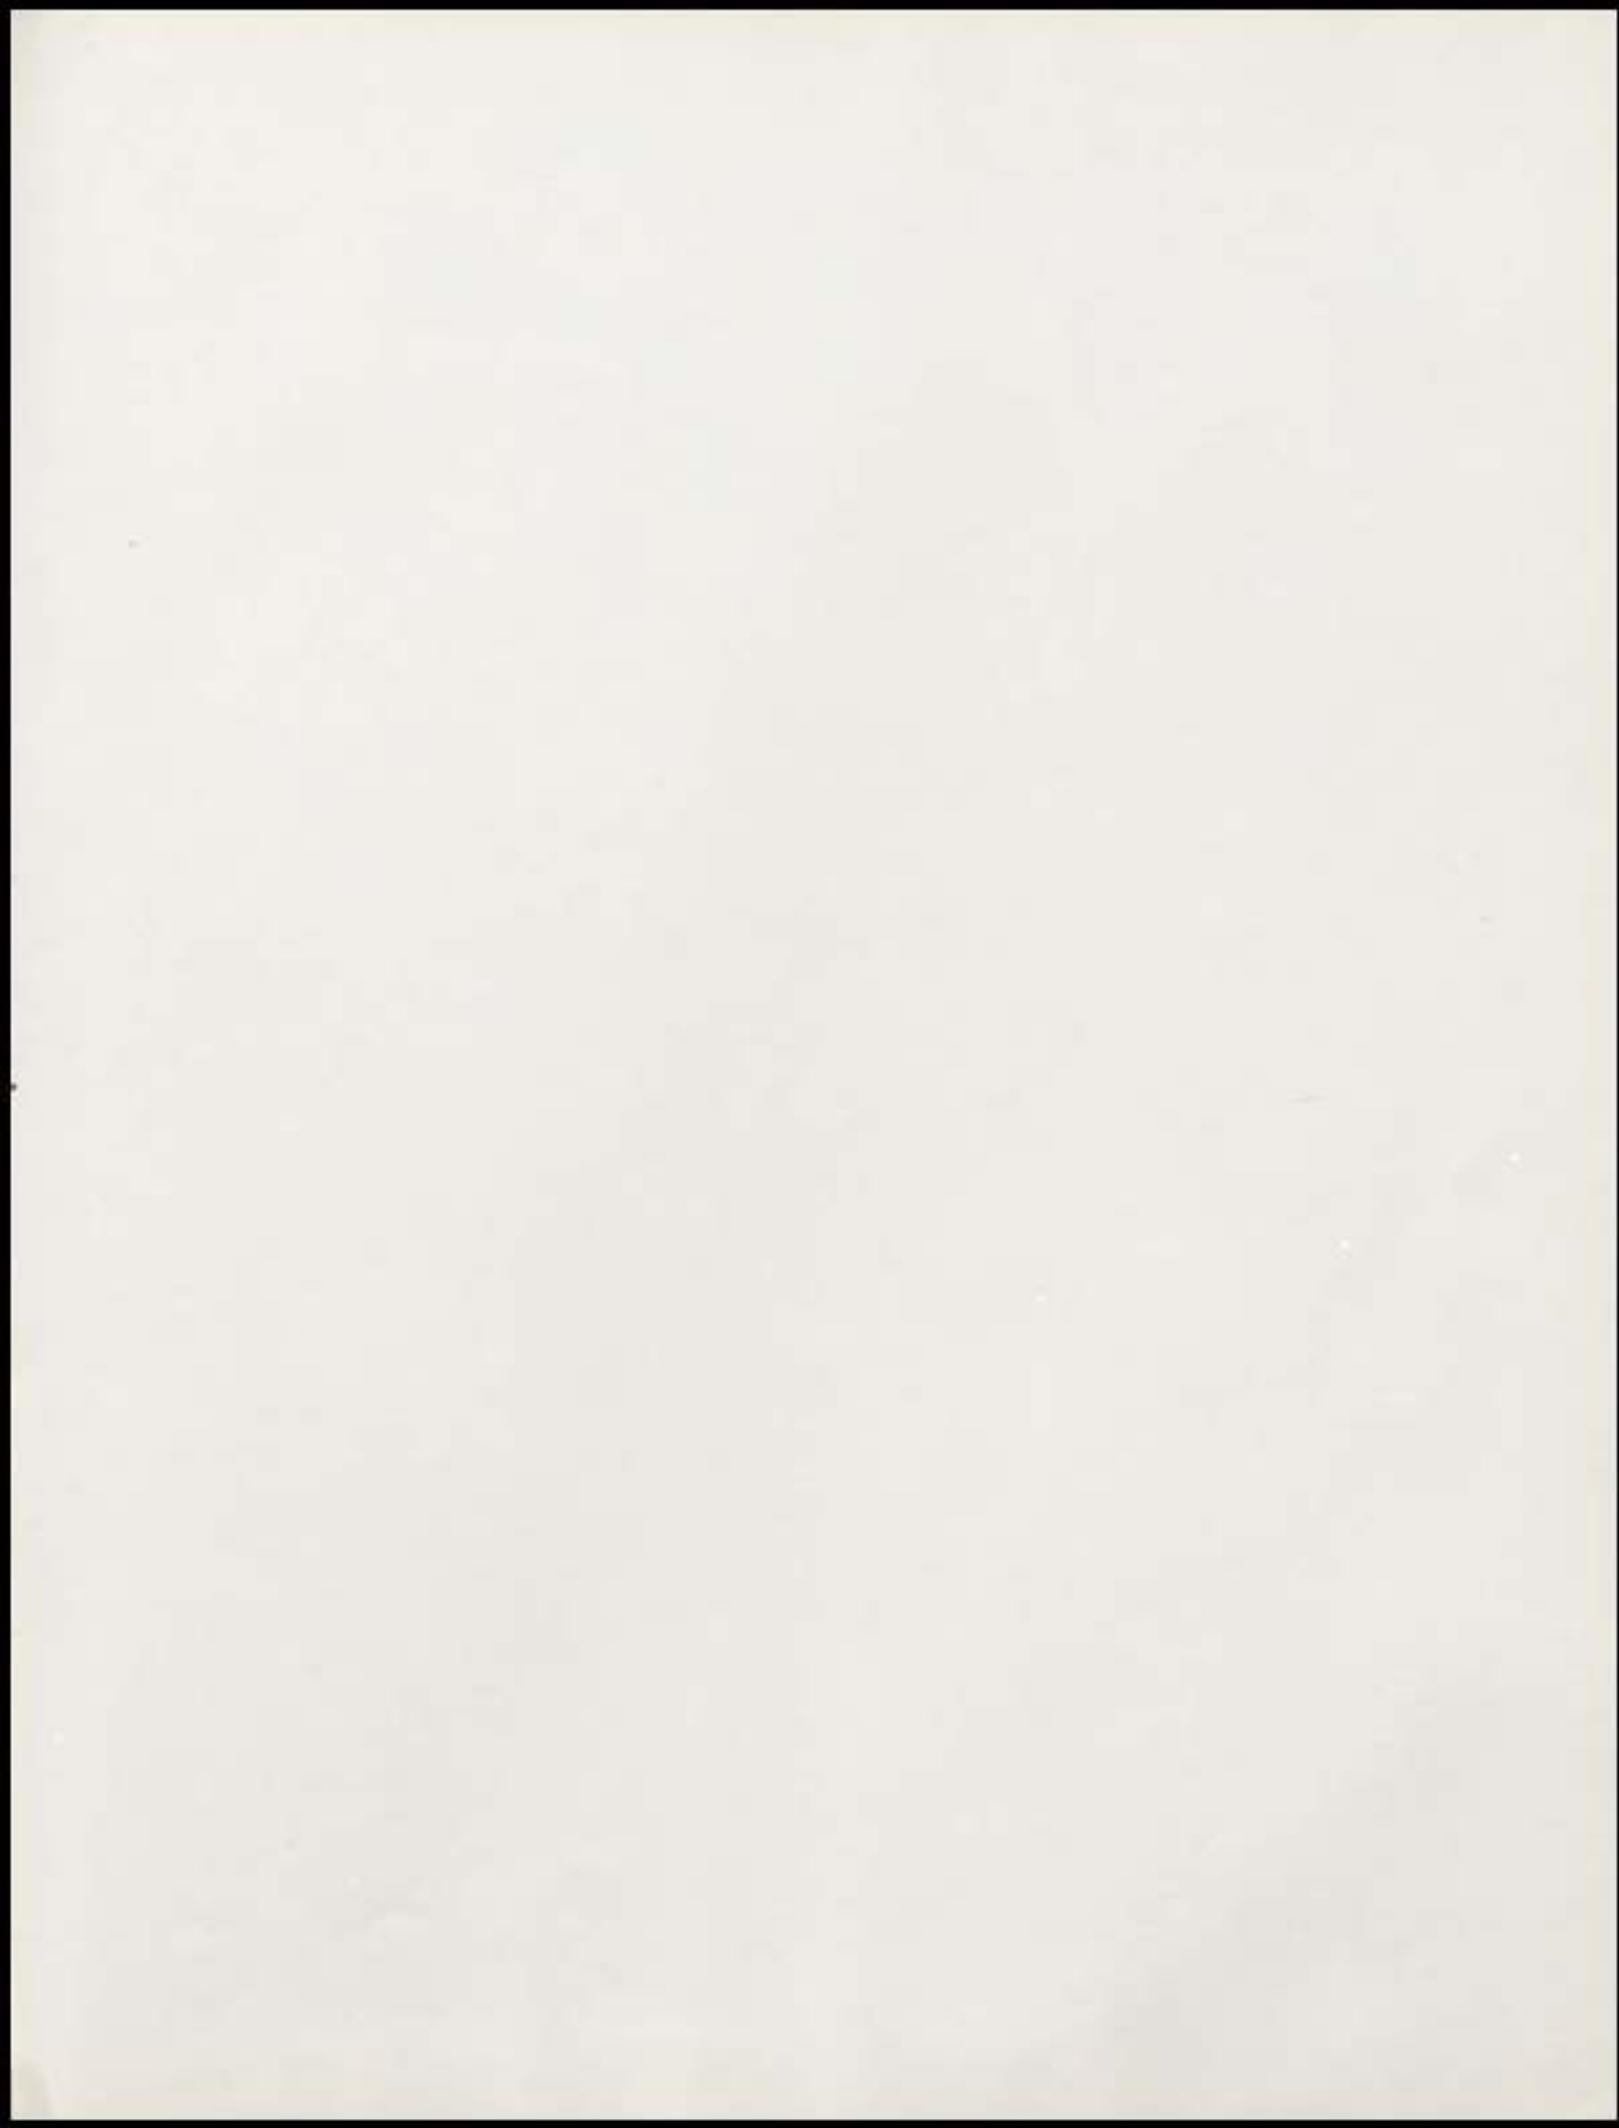

Each of us Seniors will depart, to make new friends and face the outside world.

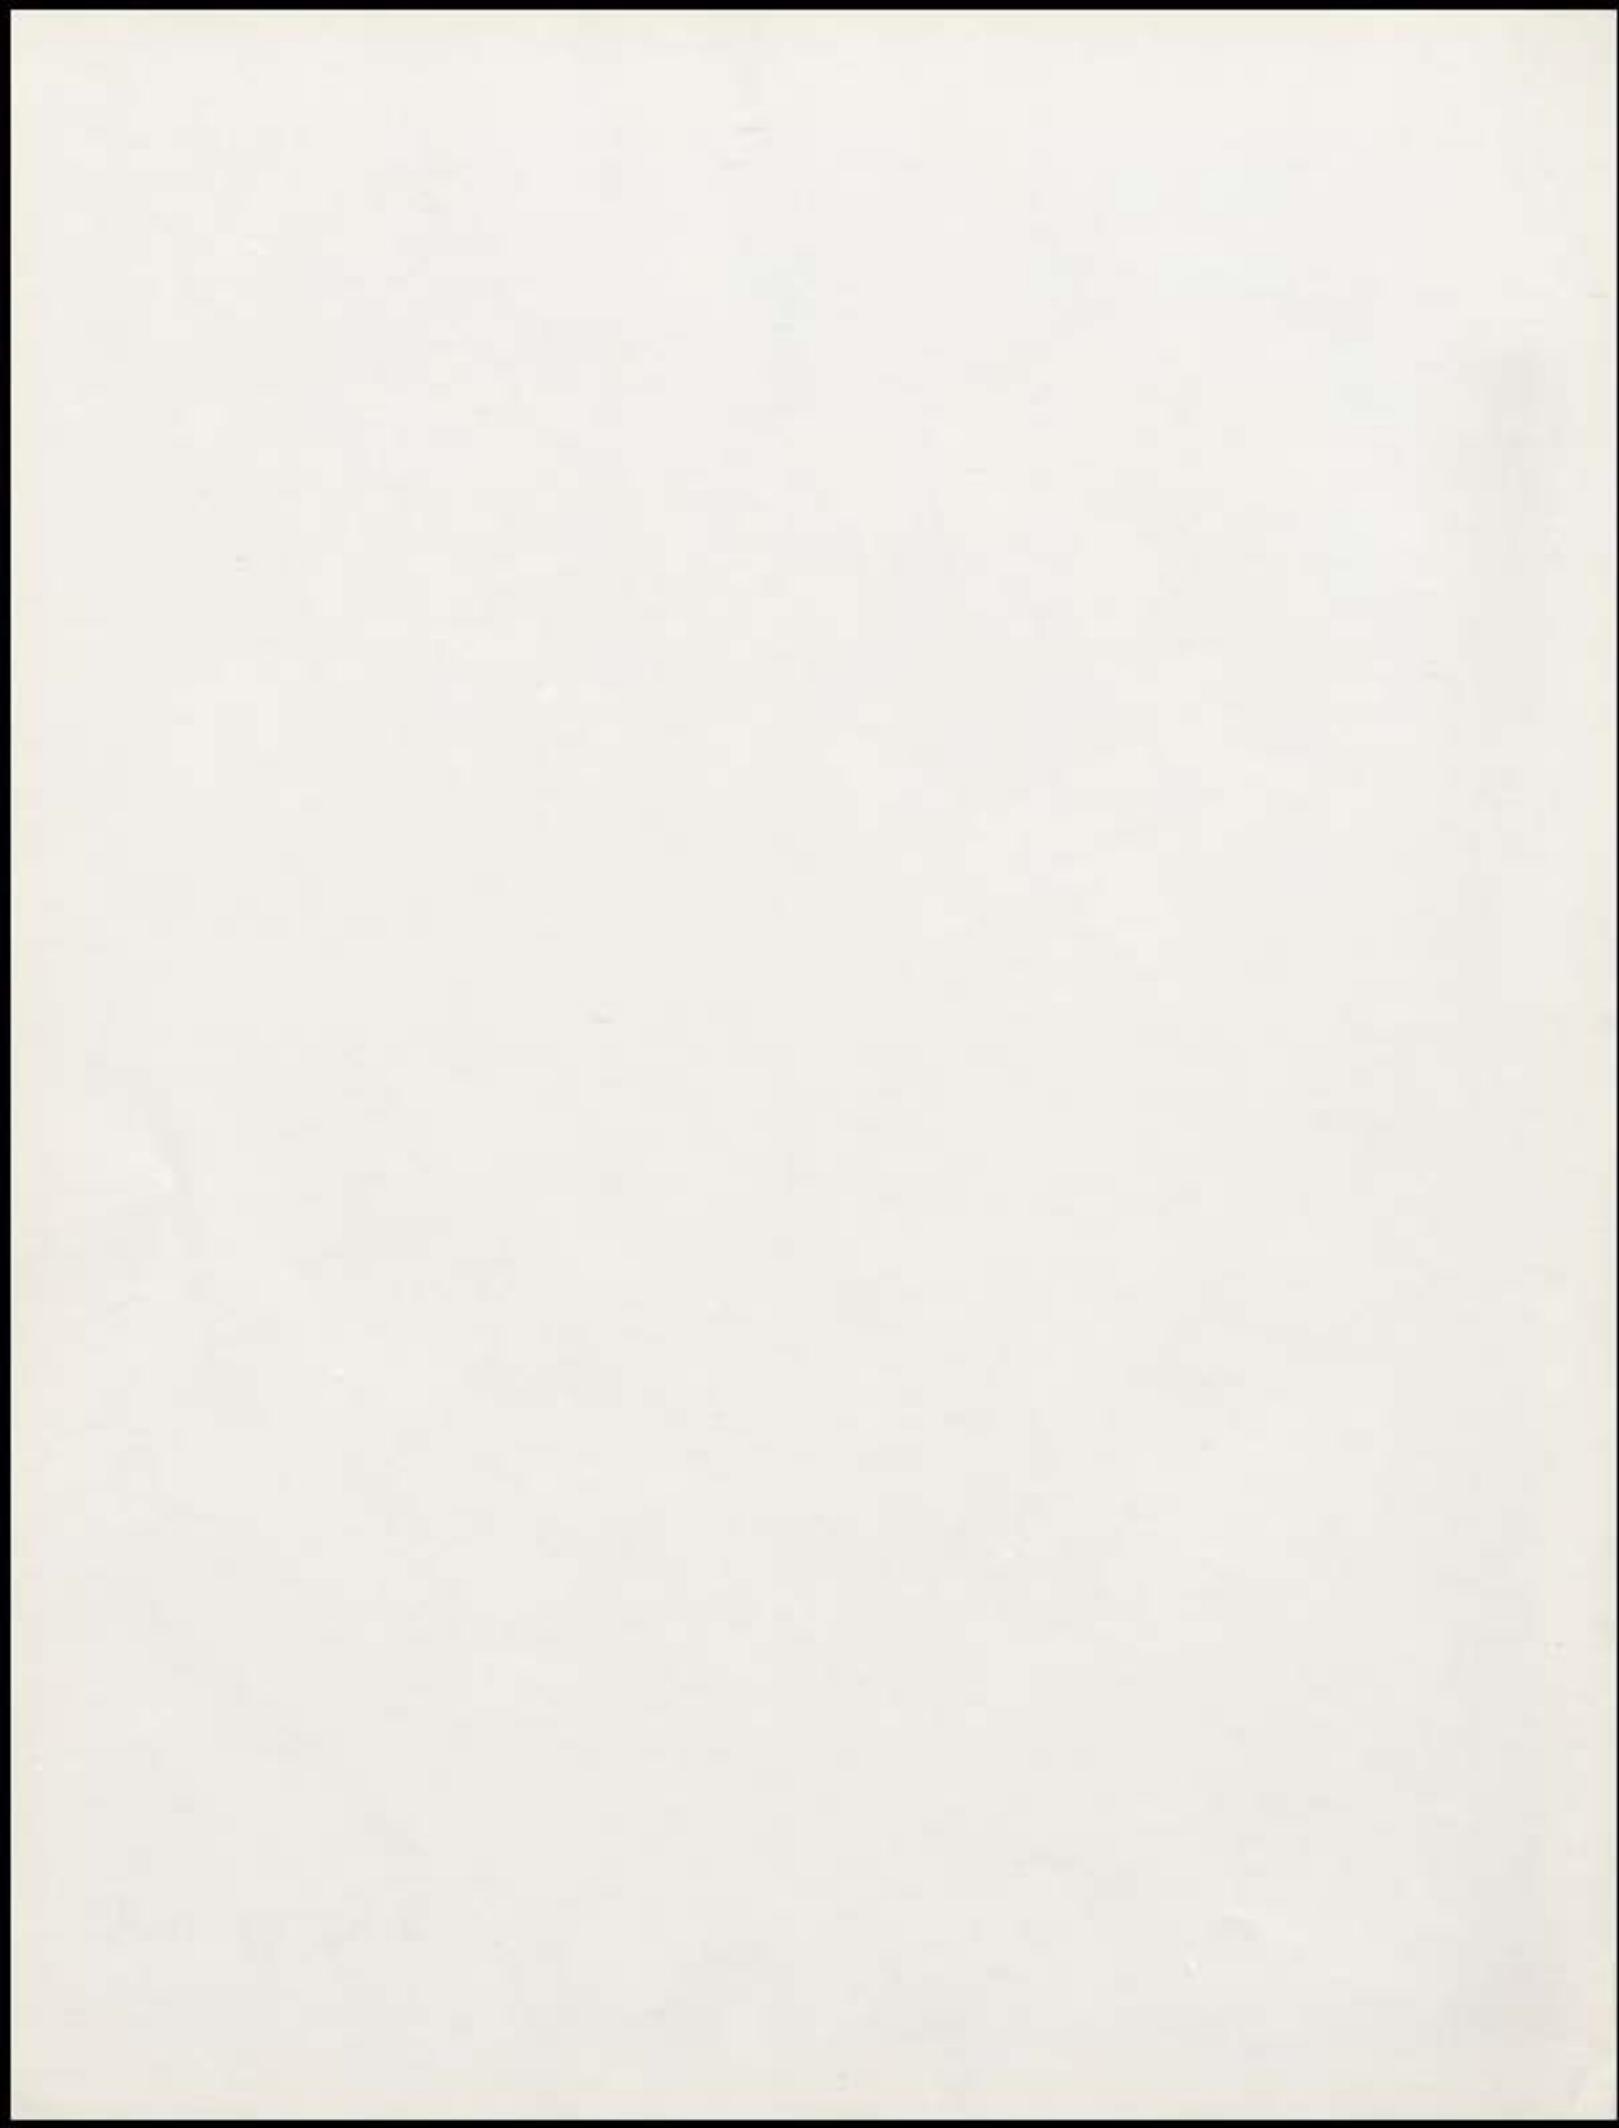

We will be met with sorrow, tears and even disappointment.

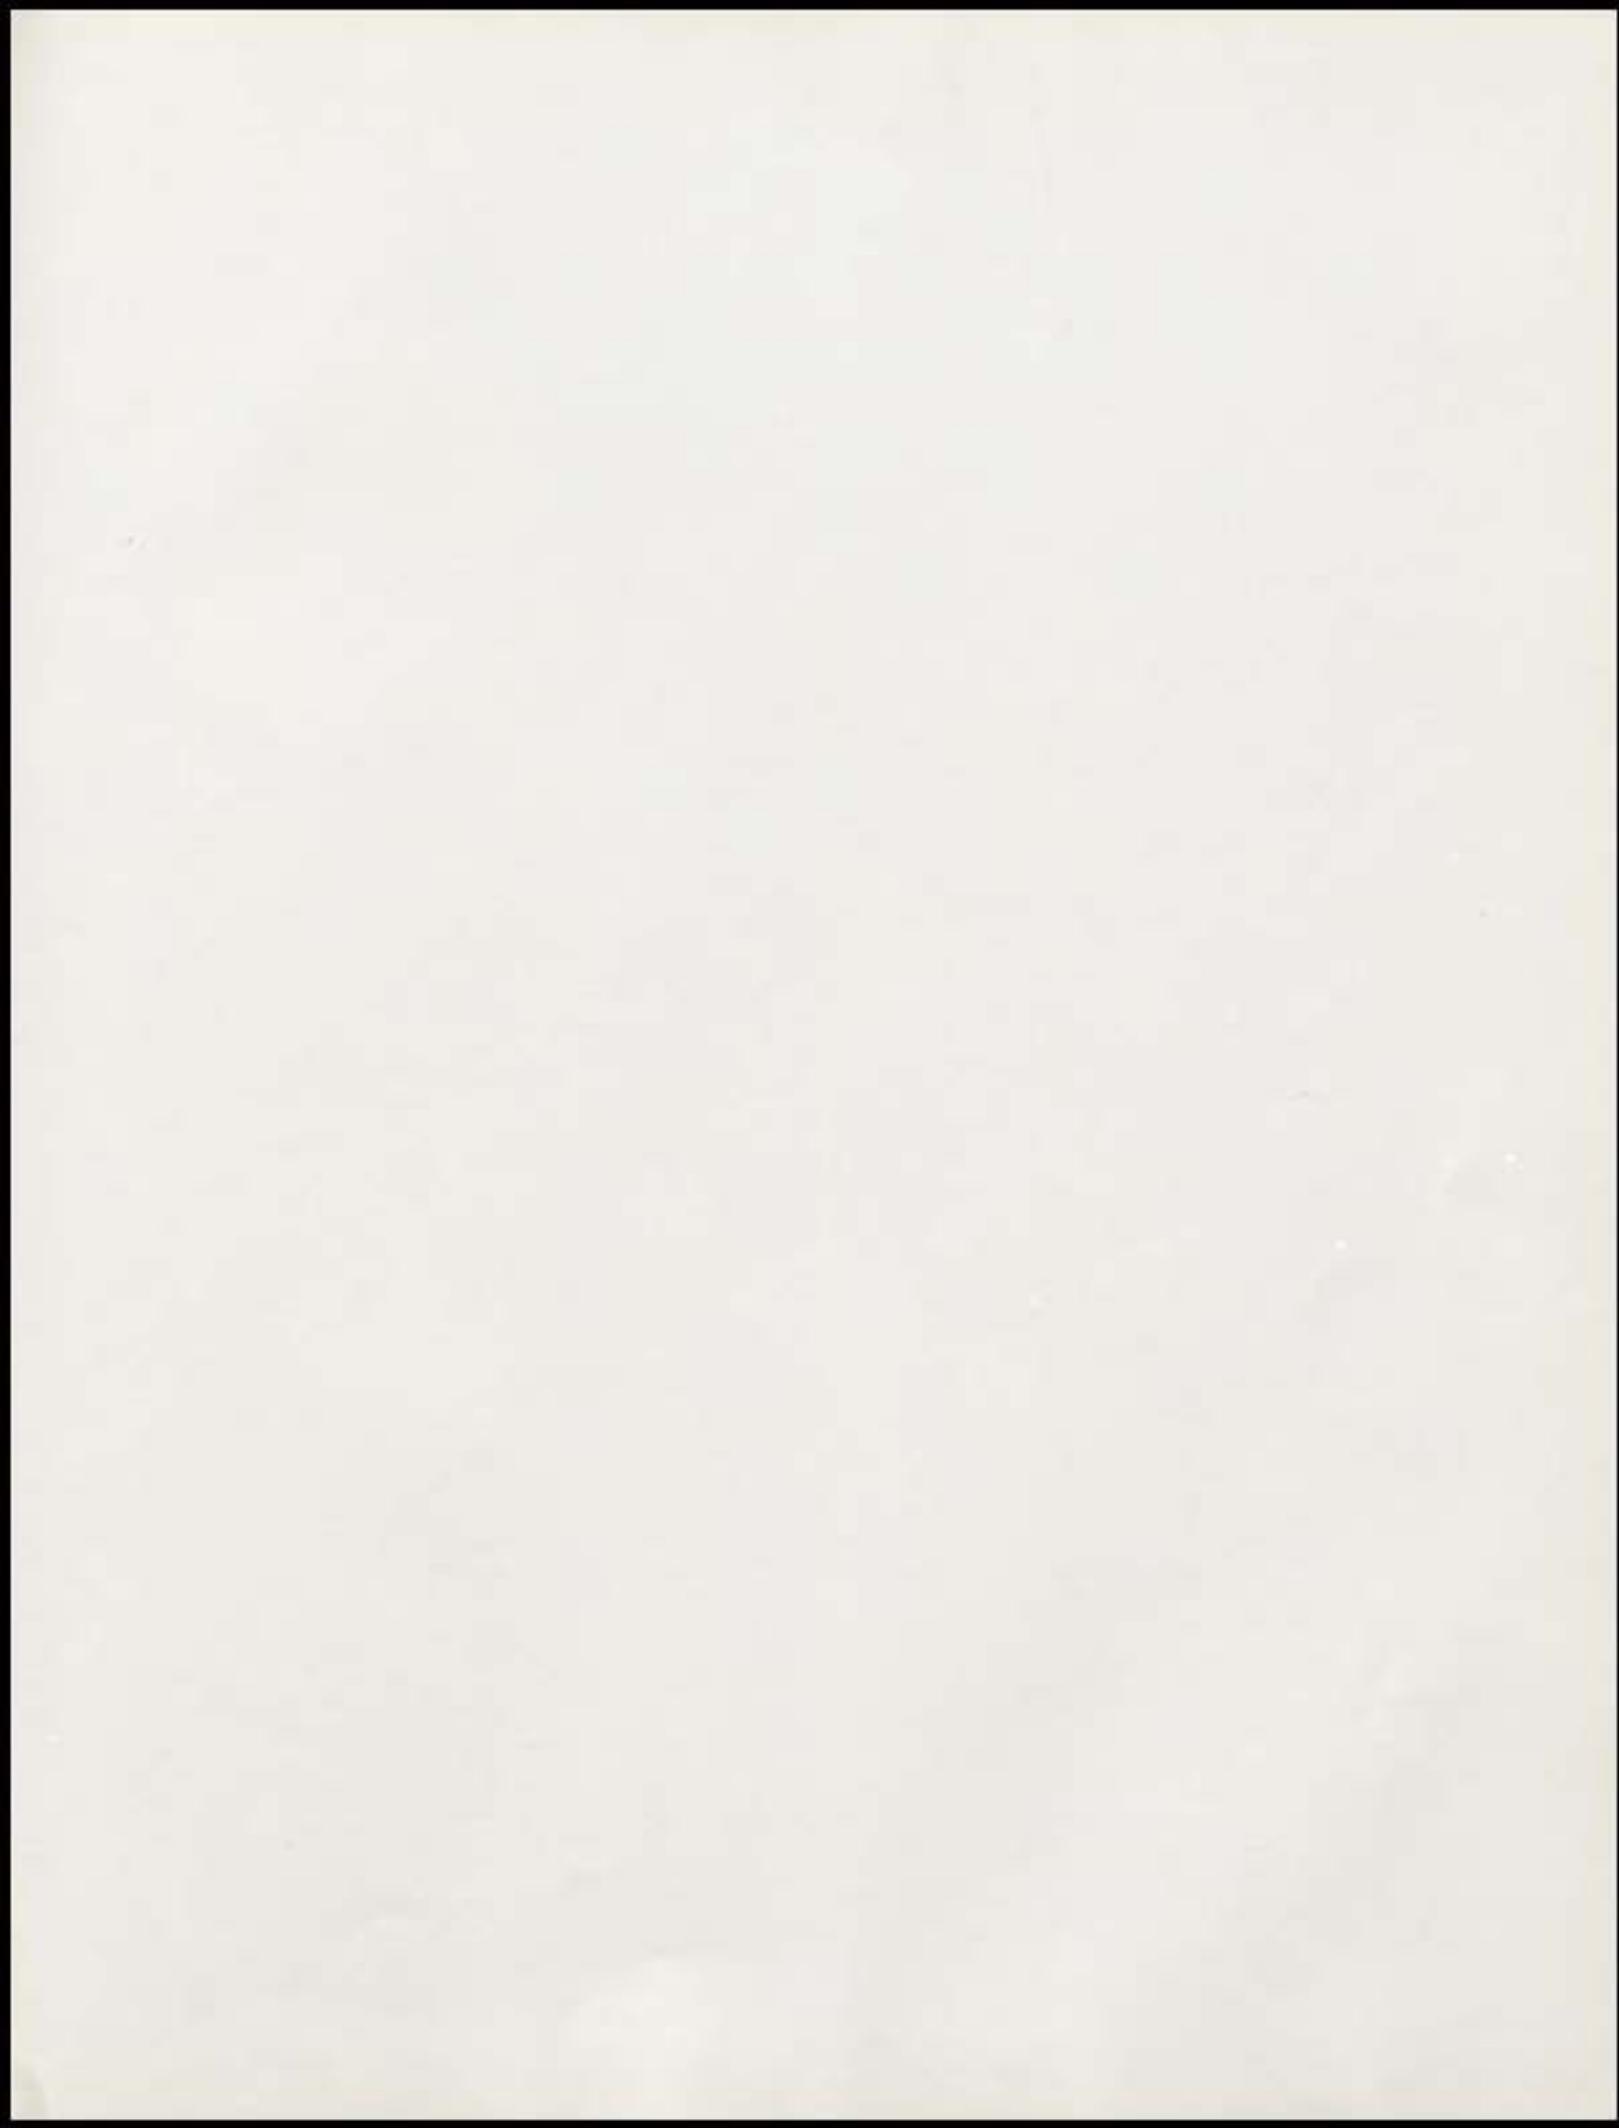

As we each go our separate ways, we will have the challenge of our class motto "We live, not as we wish to, but as we can."
