JACOBSON, Clarence Jay

August 14, 1914
Centerville
died: late March of 1989
Custer, South Dakota

Viborg Enterprise - April 6, 1989

Services Held For Clarence Jacobson

Services for Clarence Jay Jacobson, 74, who died in Custer after a long illness, were held at Custer Lutheran Fellowship Church with the Rev. Chuck Hazlett officiating.

He was born August 4, 1914, at Centerville to Guy and Gunda (Johnson) Jacobson. On January 2, 1934, he married Orva Walter. He was a farmer for several years and also was a Beresford police officer before moving to Custer in 1952. He worked at the V&R Sawmill and the Custer Lumber Co. until he retired at age 62.

He was a member of the Custer Lutheran Fellowship Church and was active in the senior citizens.

He is survived by his wife of Custer; a son, Leo Jacobson of Sturgis; a daughter, Karen Sander of Encampment, Wyo.; seven grandchildren; two great-granddaughters; three sisters, Evelyn Christensen and Esther Ness, both of Viborg, and Lois Reiners of Centerville; and two brothers, Maurice of Spirit Lake, Iowa, and John of Fort Dodge, Iowa.

He was preceded in death by one sister and two sons, one in infancy.

****