Eneada Rasmussen was born October 23, 1897 at Beresford, South Dakota.

She was married to Thorvald Morrison in 1918. They farmed in the Viborg, Irene, and Montrose areas until retiring into Davis, South Dakota. They lived there for several years and then moved into Viborg where they were now residing. Eneada had been in failing health for several years and the last few months had been spent in the Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home and hospital. She passed away Saturday morning, October 11. She was lacking just a few days of her 83rd birthday.

She is survived by her husband Thorvald, one son Larry, Viborg, one daughter, Mrs. Donald White of St. Paul Park, Minnesota; also surviving are three grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Also surviving are one brother, Edward Rasmussen, Sioux City, Iowa, and one half brother, Leonard Jensen, also of Sioux City, Iowa.

Blessed Be Her Memory.
