Funeral Held For Esther Hanson

Funeral service for Esther Hanson was held Saturday, November 27, 1993, at the Nazarene Church in Viborg with Pastor Don McGilvray officiating. Pianist was Marcia Nelson with special music by Ruth Wright. Pallbearers were Curtis Daily, Loren Hanson, Dennis Hanson, Benita Hanson Meyer, Montie Whittenberg, Geoffrey Whittenberg, and Jennifer Whittenberg. Burial was in Rosehill Cemetery, Viborg.

Esther N. Hanson was born March 27, 1910, in Turner County. Her parents were Sena and John A.K. Sorensen.

She married Leonard Hanson on June 18, 1931. They lived and farmed in the Viborg area until moving into Viborg in 1965.

Esther was a charter member of the Viborg Church of the Nazarene and a faithful servant of her Lord and Savior. She exemplified her Christian spirit as she lovingly ministered to and cared for patients at Pioneer Memorial Hospital where she was employed for 20 years. Her hands were God's hands.

Esther passed away at the Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home, November 24, 1993. She had attained the age of 83. Preceding her in death were her parents, 2 brothers, 2 sisters and 2 grandchildren.

Survivors are her husband, Leonard; 1 son, Leslie, and wife, Phyllis, of Viborg; 2 daughters: Betty Ann Daily, and husband, Bob, of Hendersonville, TN, and Janet Whittenberg, and husband, Mike, of Burke, VA; 11 grandchildren: Wendall, Brian, Loren, and Dennis Hanson, Benita Hanson Meyer, Gregory, Curtis and David Daily, Montie, Geoffrey and Jennifer Whittenberg; 16 great-grandchildren; 2 brothers: Earl K. Sorensen of Viborg and Marben Sorensen of Yankton; and other friends and loved ones.
