

JUHL, Mayme Dorthea (Andersen)

May 19, 1887
northwest of Centerville
February 11, 1920
near Webster City, Iowa

Viborg Enterprise - February 26, 1920

CARD OF THANKS

We desire through these lines to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the friends for the flowers, sympathy and all acts of kindness during our recent bereavement.

Chris Juhl

Mr. and Mrs. Soren Andersen

Mr. and Mrs. Peder Andersen

Henry M. Andersen

MRS. MAYME JUHL PASSED AWAY

It has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to call to the great beyond Mrs. Mayme Dorthea Andersen Juhl.

She was born at her parents home place, 10 miles north-west of Centerville, on May 19th, 1887 and died of typhoid pneumonia February 11, 1920 at her home near Webster City, Iowa, age 32 years, 10 months and 23 days.

Mayme has grown to womanhood in this vicinity, an active member of the South Lutheran congregation and Young Peoples Society. This church had grown so dear to her that it was her request on her death bed that she be laid to rest in the cemetery by the side of her church.

Mayme was of a kind and loving disposition, noble as well as firm in her conviction of right and justice. It can be truthfully said of her "We knew her but to love her."

Mayme Andersen was married to Chris C. Juhl on October 12th, 1916 and leaves to mourn her departure a kind and loving husband and two little sons, two years old, a father and mother and two brothers, Peter and Henry Andersen and a large host of friends who will long and deeply feel the loss of one noble character who has since her childhood stood loved and esteemed in their midst.

It was Mrs. Juhl's habit to read a chapter in the New Testament every morning, and the last morning she was able to read she finished the last chapter of the book, reading about the heavenly home and the Lord's second coming, and just think! He was so near.

The funeral took place from her parent's homestead north-east of Centerville and the South Lutheran Church on Thursday, February 19th, Rev. Skarphness of Centerville and Rev. E. Kristensen of Viborg officiating.