Viborg Enterprise - September 10, 1930

Lisa Miller was born in Seretlev Sogn, Jylland, Denmark, September 18, 1863 and died at Rochester, Minn. Saturday, July 26, being at the time of her death, 66 years, 10 months, 8 days of age.

In the Spring of 1871 she emigrated with her parents to America, stopping at Decatur, Ill. In the fall of the same year the family removed to Racine, Wis., where they resided until the spring of 1873. They at that time, moved to Turner county, S. D., where the deceased has continuously resided until the time of her death.

January 17, 1880 she was united in marriage to Nels Miller. To this union was born eleven children, four of whom, Johannes, Peter, Andrew, Carrie have preceded her in death.

As a pioneer on the Dakota prairies she has passed through all the trials and troubles of pioneer life. While she did not see the alloted three score and ten, she lived to see a bleak and seemingly endless prairies be transformed into a great fruitful land covered with beautiful homes.

Her religious life is well known and is best expressed by the fact that the parable of the Good Samaritan and the Golden Rule were her favorite bits of Scripture.

She leaves to mourn her departure seven children: Mrs. Elmer Schilling, Mrs. Ernest Pierce, Chris Miller, Dave Miller, John Miller, Sam Miller, Howard Miller, A[illegible] sister, Andrea Sorenson, of Racine, Wis., a brother, Peter Platte of Viborg, seventeen grandchildren and a host of friends and acquaintances, also mourn.
