Roy Lincoln Holm was born May 11, 1900, near Irene, South Dakota, in Turner County, the son of Chris and Nina Peterson Holm, and entered into death on April 25, 1975, at the age of 74 years, 11 months and 14 days.

Roy was engaged in farming during much of his adult life. He was married to Mildred Westling on December 9, 1933, at Sioux Falls. The couple made their home near Irene until 1936 when they moved to Eugene, Ore., where Mr. Holm worked in a lumber mill. In 1945 they returned to South Dakota, making their home in Centerville. Roy worked at various occupations in the Centerville area until illness forced his hospitalization.

Mr. Holm was baptized in the Christian faith. He is survived by his loving wife, Mildred; his daughter and his son-in-law, Shirley and Walfred Samuelson of Centerville; two brothers, Arthur of Minneapolis and Earl of Viborg; and one sister, Huldah (Mrs. Henry Nelson) of Yankton.

Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by six brothers and one sister.
