In Memorium

Dear little hands I miss them so,
All through the day wherever I go—All through the night how lonely it seems,
For no little hands wake me out of my dreams.
I miss them all through the weary hours,
I miss them as others do, sunshine and flowers.
Daytime or nighttime wherever I go,
Dear little hands I miss them so.
Weep not that his toils are O'er Weep not that his race is run
God grant we may rest as calmly,
When our life like his is done.
Tis then we yield with gladness,
Our baby to him to keep.
And rejoyce in the sweet assurance,
He giveth his loved ones sleep.

In memory of Arthur Nelson Overgaard, who died Feb. 16th, 1916, at the age of one month.
