Taken in death

Floyd Mossefin, 82, died Thursday, May 18, 1995, at Heritage Manor in Wakonda. The funeral service was held Monday, May 22, at Hansen Funeral Home in Irene with burial in Hillcrest Cemetery, rural Irene. Pastor Richard Peterson officiated.

Floyd was born January 10, 1913, to John and Clara (White) Mossefin at rural Wakonda. He was eldest of 10 brothers; he also had five sisters. He grew up in the Wakonda, Centerville and Viborg areas and was a farm laborer for many years. He remained a single person and was of a quiet disposition, but enjoyed the company of others. He especially enjoyed the little folks.

Floyd has been a resident of Heritage Manor for 12 to 13 years. He was always ready to assist in the transportation of patients for their medical appointments. His own illness was not known until these last few weeks. He remained alert until a day before his death.

He was preceded in death by his parents; 3 sisters: Florence Mutchler, Edith Mossefin and Arleen Mossefin; and six brothers: Cecil, Everett, Quentin, Verle, Dale and Donald.

He is survived by two sisters: Mary Ferrell of Volin and LaDell Baumgood, Brainerd, MN.
