Services Held For Asta Ibsen

Funeral service for Asta Ibsen was held April 29, 1993, at St. John's Lutheran Church, Kronborg, NE, with Pastors Nielsen, Pollard and Wolff officiating. Music was by Judy Sullivan with a solo by Vernon Andersen. The choir sang "Amazing Grace" as a recessional.

Mrs. Asta Ibsen was born April 7, 1908, in Iowa to Jens and Marie (Rodholm) Juhl. She graduated from the University of Northern Iowa and was a school teacher for 25 years in Calamus and Clinton, Iowa, and Viborg, South Dakota, and Marquette, Nebraska.

She was also an accomplished pianist, organist and song leader.

On September 8, 1935, she married the Rev. Harald Ibsen in Clinton, IA. Together they served a mission congregation in Oakland, CA; Peace, Ruthton, MN; Immanuel, Kimbalton, IA; Trinity, Gayville and Our Savior's, Viborg, SD; and St. John's, Kronborg, NE.

After Harald died on June 15, 1972, Asta moved to Central City. Four years ago she moved to Grand Island, NE.

Asta was a member of St. John's Evangelical Church, Kronborg, at the time of her death.

Asta died on April 25, 1993, at the home of her daughter, Karma, in Birmingham, AL. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, and an infant son, Paul.

She leaves to mourn her passing one son, David, Fullerton, CA; two daughters: Joy Ibsen, Evanston, IL, and Karma Ibsen, Birmingham, AL; one brother, Leif Juhl, Elkhart, IN; nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
