Alvin Nels Jorgensen, son of Carrie Jorgensen and the late Rasmus Jorgensen, was born on a farm west of Irene, S. Dak., where he grew to young manhood. As a young man he was baptised and confirmed in the Lutheran faith. He passed away on the evening of August 3 of acute leukemia.

On April 4, 1940, he was united in marriage to Ann Olesen of Viborg. To this union four children were born: Paul Curtig of Sioux Falls, Steve Charles, Mark Alvin and Kay Anne, at home. He is also survived by his mother of Viborg and a brother Clifford of Viborg; three grandchildren, Robin Jean, Jay Paul and Dawn Renea, three sister-in-laws and two brother-in-laws and 4 nieces. He was preceded by his father and brother Bert.

On May 28, 1967, through immersion he became a member of the First Baptist Church of Viborg, along with his wife and son Mark.

He was a kind and loving husband and father always doing for his family and not thinking of himself.
