NIEDAN, Arthur

died: November 26, 1999 (age 80)
Sturgis, South Dakota

Viborg Enterprise
December 16, 1999

Arthur Niedan

Arthur Niedan, 80, Rapid City, died Friday, November 26, 1999 at Fort Meade Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Sturgis.

Mr. Niedan was a lover of music and oftentimes made the statement, " What a Band." Art taught public school music in Viborg before moving to Rapid City.

For forty-six years he directed SD Departments American Legion Band throughout its state conventions, playing for ladies auxiliary also. He was instrumental as a leader, composer and player of summer concerts in the Rapid City area. Mr. Niedan was dedicated to blowing taps at many military funerals.

Survivors include one daughter, Terri Chamberlain, Rapid City; one son, Larry Niedan, Rapid City; and three grandchildren.

Services were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Zion Lutheran Church in Rapid City. Burial was at Black Hills National Cemetery near Sturgis. Behrens Mortuary of Rapid City was in charge of arrangements.