OBITUARY

OTTO HOLM

Services for Otto Holm were held at the Viborg Funeral Home on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 18th, at 1 o'clock. Pastor Thorvald Hansen of Our Savior's Lutheran Church officiated. Mrs. Kermit Holm sang two solos and Mrs. Helen Holm presided at the organ. The body was taken to Minneapolis for burial in the Glenhaven Cemetery.

Otto Holm, son of Christian and Nina Holm, was born Sept. 4, 1898, and passed away suddenly Nov. 15 at the Good Samaritan Home at Centerville, at the age of 66.

In August, 1928, he was married to Clara Jordalen, who died in 1951. He and his wife operated a store in Minneapolis. Otto later worked as a mechanic in Minneapolis. He returned to his home community and worked at Viborg for the Co-op Oil Co. until his health failed. He remained in Viborg until he entered the Good Samaritan Home at Centerville.

He is survived by five brothers, Harl of Wakonda, Arthur of Minneapolis, Elmer and Earl of Viborg and Roy of Centerville, and one sister, Huldah, Mrs. Henry Nelson of Yankton. He was preceded in death by his wife Clara, his parents, three brothers and one sister.

CARD OF THANKS

Our sincere thanks to all who showed sympathy in our recent bereavement for the cards and memorials. Thanks to Rev. Hansen, Mrs. Kermit Holm for her solos, and to Mrs. Helen Holm for the music. A special thanks to the Good Samaritan Home for their expressions of sympathy. We are sincerely grateful.
