OBITUARY

Else Marie Christensen was born in Uggesby Vendsyssel, Denmark, July 19th, 1845. She came to America in May, 1905. Old Else never married. She died at the home of her brother's wife, Mrs. Jens Christensen, Viborg, on Dec. 1st, 1919. Of relatives she leaves behind Mrs. J. Christensen and children of Viborg.

She lived her life quietly, unnoticed by most people. Her life was spent in serving others, perhaps that is the reason she was always happy, thankful for every little favor shown her.

Her wants in life were few and small. No one ever heard her complain—on the contrary she felt God had been so good to her that she had never been in need of shelter and food, and whenever she heard of any people in need either in the mission world or during the last great war she always insisted on giving her mite, willing to deny herself even life's necessities to do so.

Her lovely life might teach us a lesson in being faithful even in the least.

The funeral took place from the home of Mrs. Jens Christensen and from the South Lutheran Church on Wednesday, December 3rd, 1919. Rev. E. Kristensen officiating. Many friends followed Old Else to her last resting place.
