Funeral Services Held For Former Resident

NAMPA, IDAHO — Funeral services for Oliver Hanson, 64, of 424 E. Sheridan Ave., who died Wednesday morning at a Nampa hospital following a short illness, were held on Saturday at the College Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. Jim Bond, pastor of the church, officiating. Interment was at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens on Karcher Road.

Mr. Hanson was born on Sept. 21, 1905, at Garrison, N. D., and soon thereafter moved with his parents to South Dakota. He was married to Gladys Anderson on Feb. 8 1929, at Irene, S. D. They lived in South Dakota where he farmed in the Irene area and then moved to Viborg. They moved to Nampa in 1964, where they have since made their home. Since coming to Nampa, he has worked as a carpenter. He was a member of College Church of the Nazarene of Nampa.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Gladys Hanson of Nampa; one daughter, Lynnette Hanson, at home; four brothers, Albert Hanson of Sacramento, Calif., Leonard Hanson of Viborg, S. D., Herbert Hanson of Valentine, Neb., and Elmer Hanson of Kadoka, S. D.; six sisters, Mrs. Lewis (Marie) Wenzlaff of Viborg, S. D., Mrs. Nels (Clara) Nelsen, also of Viborg, S. D., Mrs. Willie (Laura) Christensen of Kadoka, S. D., Mrs. Donald (Viola) Merritt and Mrs. Lyle (Myrtle) Ohmsted, both of Nampa, and Mrs. Clifford (Edna) Kraayenbrink of Ortonville, Minn.; and by three half-sisters, Mrs. Ruth Dittus and Mrs. Elaine Beutler, both of Ortonville, Minn., and Mrs. Naomi Dickey of Sioux Falls, S. D.

Those attending the funeral service from this area were: Mrs. Donald Nelsen, Mrs. Nels M. Nelsen, and Mr. and Mrs. Cornell Munkvold of Sioux Falls.
