JOHNSON, Elmer Miller

January 19, 1908
rural Irene, South Dakota
December 15, 1985
Tyndall, South Dakota

Elmer Johnson

TYNDAL — Elmer M. Johnson, 77, Tyndall, died Sunday (Dec. 15, 1985) in a hospital in Tyndall.

The funeral will be 2 p.m. Wednesday in St. John's Lutheran Church in Tyndall, with the Rev. Terry Naasz officiating. Burial will be in Meldahl Cemetery, Viborg.

Visitation will be from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. today in Petrik-Kelley Funeral Home, Tyndall.

Mr. Johnson ws born Jan. 19, 1908, near Irene, to George H. and Matilda (Mellegaard) Johnson. He attended Dist. 55 School. He married Marie Olsen March 10, 1934. They farmed near Center Point. She died Jan. 7, 1944.

He married Gladys L. Van Haitsma Engel on Jan. 28, 1948. They farmed near Center Point until February 1956 when they moved to Tyndall. He then worked for Consumer Supply Co. for many years. In 1960, they moved to a farm near Tyndall where they farmed until moving to town in November 1983.

Survivors are his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Mike (Judy) Williams, Tyndall; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Bill (Darlene) Slowey, Springfield, and Mrs. Eldon (Pat) Bjorum, Scotland; two stepsons, Fred Engel, St. Charles, Mo., and Jimmy Engel of Fall River, Mass.; a sister, Mrs. Lee (Annie) Larson, Viborg; three granddaughters; 11 step-grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.