Juanita Magdaline Rennich

Jaunita Magdaline Rennich was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rennich at Viborg, So. Dak. on the 24th day of July 1938. On Aug. 28th of the same year she was baptized in the faith of the Lutheran church.

Jaunita always appeared to be a healthy and strong child. But late in the month of April she began to fail and it soon became apparent that she was seriously ill. She was taken to the Sioux Valley Hospital at Sioux Falls, S.D. and from there to St. Mary's at Rochester, Minn., where an operation for brain tumor was performed. She passed away on May 28th, at the Worrall Hospital at Rochester, at the age of three years 10 months and four days.

Her loss is keenly felt. She is mourned by her father and mother, a little brother and sister, and many relatives, and many friends she had won through her pleasant smile and winning ways.

Hallowed be the memory of Juanita Rennich.

Funeral services were held from the funeral home of Fraternal Burial Association and the South Lutheran Church, on Monday June 1st with Rev. Harris A. Jespersen in charge of services and K. L. Raynie directing.
