Mae E. Nelson was born April 23, 1919, at Centerville, SD, to Ellis V. and Anna Nelson. As a small child, she moved with her family to Viborg where she grew up. She was graduated from Viborg High School in 1937 and attended South Dakota State College in Brookings where she received her degree in Pharmacy in 1941.

On April 26, 1942, she was united in marriage to Glenn Sample at Viborg, SD. In 1946, the couple moved to Wakonda where they owned and operated a drug store until 1965 at which time they moved to Sioux Falls.

Mrs. Sample was a member of Grace Lutheran Church and the Sioux Falls Camera Club. Mae's interests were broad and diverse. Her love for the outdoors included not only gardening, of which she particularly enjoyed growing roses, but it extended to exercise activities of bicycling and walking. She did extensive stamp collecting. Mae also enjoyed tracing her geneology, photography and sewing.

Grateful for having shared her life are her husband, Glenn; two sons, Dale Sample, Sioux Falls and Richard Sample, Madison, SD; and 6 grandchildren, David, Deborah, Paul, Tami, Anna and Sarah.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother, Ornell.
