First wife of Aaron Hansen.

Daughter of Nels E. (1850--1936)
and Marie (1850--1940) Olsen

Mrs. Aaron Hansen, Dead.

Mrs. Aaron Hansen, nee Mary Olsen, was born in Racine, Wis., Jan. 29, 1878. When only eleven years of age she united with the Danish Baptist church in which she labored faithfully, especially as a Sunday school worker.

In the fall of 1899 she moved with her parents to Viborg, S. D. She immediately united with the Daneville Baptist church in which she also taught a Sunday school class until the time of her illness.

On Sept. 25th, 1902, she was united with Aaron Hansen in marriage.

She was confined to her bed nearly a year, during which time she suffered very much but God gave her strength to be patient through all her sufferings. Although she was in great bodily pain, she was always contented and cheerful and very thoughtful and considerate of others. She had a remarkable degree of courage and hope and at the last she looked into the face of death calmly and without fear for she had an unwavering faith in God.

Mrs. Hansen leaves a dear husband, father and mother, one sister and three brothers to mourn her untimely death. She is now at rest with God where a dear brother and sister have gone before.

The funeral services were held at the home last Sunday forenoon at 11 o'clock. A long procession followed the remains to the Baptist church where Rev. Bolvig and Rev. Tychsen preached, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Baptist cemetery. * *
