OESTREICH, William Oliver "Bobbie"

April 24, 1912
rural LaBolt (Grant County, South Dakota
August 4, 1989
Viborg

Viborg Enterprise =
August 17, 1989

Services Held For William "Bobbie" Oestreich

Funeral service for William Oestreich was held on August 8, 1989, at Bethany Lutheran Church in Viborg with Pastor Kevin Lee officiating. Organist was Mrs. Ada Oakland and special music was provided by Mrs. Dorothy Larsen. Pallbearers were J. Merle Petersen, Sidney Knutson, Rodney Peterson, Harvey P. Jensen, James Oakland, and Rudy Edelman. Interment was in Mount Hope Cemetery in Watertown.

William Oliver Oestreich was born April 24, 1912, Grant County, near LaBolt, South Dakota. He was the son of William R. and Anna Oestreich.

He married Evelyn Sue Larson on August 2, 1941, at Strandburg, SD. He was employed at Swifts of Watertown for 30 years.

They moved to Chicago, Illinois, and he worked as a carpenter for seven years. In 1975 they retired into Viborg.

He was a member of Bethany Lutheran Church at Viborg and had served on the Church Council. On August 4, 1989, he passed away at the Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home, Viborg. He had reached age 77 years, 3 months, 11 days.

Preceding him in death were his parents and a son-in-law, Larry Glidewell.

Survivors are his wife, one son, William R. and his wife, Jane of Hoffman Estates, Illinois, two daughters, Bonnie Glidewell, Sioux Falls, SD, Cheryl and husband, Darwin Stadly, Watertown, 5 grandchildren, and 3 nephews who made their home with them from 1962 - Terry, John, and Steve Larson, one brother, John Oestreich, Little Falls, MN, 3 sisters, Angeline Schmidt, Mystic, Connecticut, Edna Corwin, Marshalltown, Iowa, and Gladys Oestreich, Brookline, Massachusetts. There are nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.