FUNERAL SERVICES ARE HELD FOR MRS. E. LINEBACK

Joyce Eleanor Friman Lineback passed away at Sacred Heart Hospital in Yankton, S. D., on November 15, 1975, after a seven-month illness. Funeral services were held on Tuesday, November 18, at the United Methodist Church in Hurley, with Rev. Robert Vessey and Rev. Roger J. Thomas officiating. Soloists were Mrs. Randall Evenson and Mrs. Donald Mark. Organists were Mrs. Frank Breen and Mrs. Virgil Christensen. Mrs. Lowell Andersen read "Crossing the Bar". Pallbearers were, Richard Lineback, Frank Breen, Robert Jensen, Darol Jensen, Rodney Petersen, and Lowell Andersen. She was laid to rest in the Hurley Cemetery.

Joyce Eleanor Friman Lineback was born on February 16, 1920, near Parker, S. D., to Floyd and Alice Friman. She attended grade and high school in Hurley, and graduated with a teachers certificate from Eastern State Teachers College at Madison, S. D. She then taught rural schools in Campbell and Turner counties for seven years. Prior to her illness she was employed for three years at the South Dakota Human Services Center at Yankton.

Joyce was united in marriage to Emery G. Lineback on Jan. 9, 1943. To this union three children were born: Glenda Joyce, Glenn Emery, and Gregory Floyd.

They made their home in Viborg until 1962 when they purchased an acreage in Yankton County.

Left to mourn, are her husband, Emery; daughter, Glenda (Mrs. George Graves) of Houston, Texas; sons, Specialist E4 Glenn E. Lineback, in the Army and stationed in Sioux Falls, and Gregory F. Lineback at home, a senior in Irene High School; a son-in-law, George Graves; a daughter-in-law, Debbie Lineback; three grandchildren, Candace Marie Graves, Jennifer Lynn Graves, and Casey Lee Lineback; also Larry Stevens, a close friend of the family whom Joyce called Son; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Friman of Hurley; four sisters, Iona (Mrs. J. W. Bondesen) of Hurley, Lucille (Mrs. Kenneth Lineback) of Viborg, Marjorie Jensen of Sioux Falls, and Darlene (Mrs. Stanley Hagen) of Parker; also many other relatives and friends.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank everyone for the many acts of kindness during the loss of our wife, mother and grandmother; for the memorials, cards, flowers, and food brought in, and visits and prayers. May God bless you all.
