

PEDERSEN, Luverne G.

February 21, 1921
Turner County
died: late August of 1987

Viborg Enterprise - September 10, 1987

Services Held For Luverne Pedersen

Funeral service for Luverne G. Pedersen was held at First Baptist Church in Viborg, Wednesday, September 2, 1987, with Pastor Charles Lindgren officiating. Special music was provided by Mr. Roger Anderson, who sang "One Day at a Time." Congregational hymn was "Have Thine Own Way, Lord." Pallbearers were Maynard Larsen, Murnell Larsen, Eudell Nelson, Kenneth Mork, Dick Fikse, Maurice Long. Interment was in the Baptist Cemetery where "Taps" was played by Dale Hall.

Luverne G. Pedersen was born February 21, 1921, in Turner County, South Dakota. His parents were Edvert Martin and Sarah Pedersen.

September 21, 1943, he married Lois Jensen. They lived at Port Angeles, Washington, for 17 years, moving back to Viborg in 1965. They farmed some years and then he worked for VerBeek Heating and Plumbing until he retired. Lois passed away October 18, 1982.

Luverne had been in the service of the United States of America.

He is survived by two sons, Gary and Larry of Anchorage, Alaska; one daughter, Mrs. Jim (Linda) Leber, Hurley, South Dakota; one sister, Mrs. Charles (Opal) Camp, Anoka, Minnesota; seven grandchildren.